Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

The source and amount of funds used in purchasing the Stock were as follows:

Purchaser	Source of Funds	Amount
LCM	Funds under Management ⁽¹⁾	$2,127,519.88
DAP	Working Capital	$1,785,945.77

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

As disclosed in prior filings, the Filers ("Lawndale") have been in contact with P&F Industries' ("PFIN", "P&F" or the "Company") management and members of P&F's Board of Directors (the "Board") regarding concerns relating to the Company's executive compensation policies and the Board's composition and corporate governance practices. Over several years, Lawndale has requested implementation of constructive changes that would further improve corporate governance, better align management and directors with shareowners' interests, and other capital allocation steps to maximize value for all PFIN shareowners.

In February 2016, P&F sold its residential hardware business, focusing the company on its remaining tools segment. In March 2016, P&F announced the issuance of a special, one-time cash dividend of $0.50 per share and the initiation of a regular quarterly cash dividend starting at a rate of $0.20 per share per year. As Lawndale in the past had requested P&F's Board to regularly consider returning capital to PFIN shareholders via a sustainable dividend or stock buyback, Lawndale is pleased with these actions.

Lawndale believes that, should PFIN's market valuation multiple (and thus its cost of capital) not improve as a result of its focusing on single industry segment and initiation of a sustainable quarterly dividend, the Company's Board should also consider implementing a modest-sized 10b5-1 stock buyback plan, capped at attractive price valuation multiples, enabling periodic open market purchases that are not limited by narrow "insider trading windows".

Lawndale continues to believe that P&F's Board should make by-law changes to adopt "Best Practices" in corporate governance such as de-staggering director terms to a single year vs. the Company's present three-year terms, adopting a majority vote requirement for director election, and enhancing shareholders' right to call a Special Meeting or remove a director, among others. Lawndale believes P&F's present archaic barriers to board accountability hurt PFIN's market valuation and also undesirably insulate its directors from making further necessary improvements in P&F's compensation practices.

Lawndale believes the public market value of PFIN is undervalued by not adequately reflecting the value of P&F's business segments and other assets, including certain long-held real estate.

While Lawndale acquired the Stock solely for investment purposes, Lawndale has been and may continue to be in contact with P&F management, members of P&F's Board, other significant shareholders and others regarding alternatives that the Company could employ to maximize shareholder value. Lawndale may from time to time take such actions, as it deems necessary or appropriate to maximize its investment in the Company's shares. Such action(s) may include, but are not limited to, buying or selling the Company's Stock at its discretion, communicating with the Company's shareholders and/or others about actions which may be taken to improve the Company's financial situation or governance policies or practices, as well as such other actions as Lawndale, in its sole discretion, may find appropriate.
