On March 30, 2017, Six Flags Entertainment Corporation (the “Company”) issued a press release announcing that it is seeking to issue an aggregate of up to $1.2 billion in a private offering of senior unsecured notes (the “Notes”). The Notes will be guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by the Company’s subsidiaries that guarantee indebtedness under the Company’s senior secured credit facility. A copy of the press release relating to the Notes offering is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.

The Company intends to use a portion of the net proceeds from the Notes offering to repurchase any and all of the outstanding 5.25% Senior Notes due 2021 (the “2021 Notes”) of the Company in the Tender Offer (as defined below) and, if the Tender Offer is not consummated, or if less than all of the outstanding 2021 Notes are repurchased in the Tender Offer, to fund the redemption of any 2021 Notes that remain outstanding, to pay tender and redemption premiums on the 2021 Notes, as applicable, and to pay related fees and expenses. The remaining net proceeds will be used for general corporate purposes, including to fund repurchases of the Company’s common stock from time to time, subject to compliance with its financing arrangements, and transaction expenses.

The Notes will be offered to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and to certain persons outside of the United States pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act. The Notes and the related guarantees have not been registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction, and may not be offered or sold in the United States without registration or an applicable exemption from the Securities Act and applicable state securities or blue sky laws and foreign securities laws. The information contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K, including the exhibits hereto, is neither an offer to sell nor a solicitation of an offer to purchase any of the Notes or any other securities of the Company.

On March 30, 2017, the Company announced that it has commenced a cash tender offer (the “Tender Offer”), subject to certain significant terms and conditions, for any and all of the outstanding 2021 Notes. In connection with the Tender Offer, the Company is also seeking consents to eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants in the indenture governing the 2021 Notes as described in the Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement dated March 30, 2017. The Tender Offer is scheduled to expire at 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on April 26, 2017, subject to the Company’s right to extend the Tender Offer, with an early tender deadline of 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on April 12, 2017. Concurrently with the commencement of the Tender Offer, the Company issued a conditional notice of redemption providing for the redemption of all of the outstanding 2021 Notes at a redemption price of 102.625%, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, through April 28, 2017. The closing of the Tender Offer and the redemption are conditioned on, among other things, the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, including, among other things, the Company having obtained sufficient funds to repurchase or redeem any and all of the outstanding 2021 Notes. The Notes offering is not conditioned upon the consummation of the Tender Offer. A copy of the press release relating to the Tender Offer and redemption is furnished as Exhibit 99.2 hereto.

The information contained in Item 7.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K (including Exhibit 99.1 and Exhibit 99.2) is being furnished and shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section. The information contained in Item 7.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K shall not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement or other document pursuant to the Securities Act, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in any such filing.

Tender Offer and Consent Solicitation Announced by Six Flags

GRAND PRAIRIE, Texas - March 30, 2017 - Six Flags Entertainment Corporation (NYSE: SIX), the world's largest regional theme park company, today announced the commencement of a cash tender offer for any and all of its outstanding 5.25 percent Senior Notes due 2021 (the "Notes"). The tender offer is being made pursuant to an Offer to Purchase and Consent Solicitation Statement and the accompanying Consent and Letter of Transmittal (the "Offer Documentation"), each dated March 30, 2017. The offer will expire at 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on April 26, 2017, unless extended or earlier terminated (the "Expiration Time").

Holders who validly tender (and do not validly withdraw) their Notes on or prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on April 12, 2017 (the "Early Tender Expiration"), and whose Notes are accepted for payment, will receive total consideration equal to $1,027.66 per $1,000 principal amount of the Notes (the "Total Consideration"), plus accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes up to, but not including, the initial settlement date. The Total Consideration includes an early participation premium of $30.00 per $1,000 principal amount of the Notes. Holders who tender Notes on or prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on April 12, 2017 (the "Withdrawal Time") may withdraw such tender at any time on or prior to the Withdrawal Time. Tenders of Notes may not be withdrawn after the Withdrawal Time, even with respect to Notes tendered after the Withdrawal Time, except in certain limited circumstances where additional withdrawal rights are required by law.

Holders who validly tender (and do not validly withdraw) their Notes after the Early Tender Expiration, but on or prior to the Expiration Time, and whose Notes are accepted for payment, will receive the tender consideration equal to $997.66 per $1,000 principal amount of the Notes (the "Tender Consideration") plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, up to, but not including, the final settlement date. Holders of Notes who tender after the Early Tender Expiration will not receive the early participation premium.

As part of the tender offer, the company is also soliciting consents from the holders of the Notes for certain proposed amendments that would, among other things, eliminate substantially all restrictive covenants contained in the indenture governing the Notes. Adoption of the proposed amendments with respect to the Notes requires the consent of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding principal amount of the Notes. Holders who tender their Notes will be deemed to consent to the proposed amendments and holders may not deliver consents to the proposed amendments without tendering their Notes in the tender offer. The tender offer and consent solicitation are subject to customary closing conditions, including, among other things, a financing condition and the receipt of the required consents to amend and supplement the indenture governing the Notes (as more fully described in the Offer Documentation).

Provided that the conditions to the tender offer have been satisfied or waived, the company will pay for the Notes purchased in the tender offer, together with accrued and unpaid interest, on either the initial settlement date or the final settlement date, as applicable. Holders of the Notes that have been validly tendered and accepted by the company prior to the Early Tender Expiration will receive the Total Consideration and will be paid on the initial settlement date, which is expected to be promptly after satisfaction of the closing conditions and the Early Tender Expiration. Holders of the Notes that have been validly tendered and accepted by the company after the Early Tender Expiration, but prior to the Expiration Time, will receive only the Tender Consideration, and will be paid on the final settlement date, which is expected to be promptly after the date on which the Expiration Time occurs.

Concurrently with the commencement of the tender offer, the company issued a conditional notice of redemption of all outstanding Notes. The redemption price for the Notes is 102.625 percent of the aggregate outstanding principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, through April 28, 2017. The redemption date is expected to occur on May 1, 2017. The redemption of the Notes is subject to a financing condition. In the company's discretion, the redemption may not occur and the redemption notice may be rescinded in the event such condition shall not have been satisfied by the redemption date.

This press release is for informational purposes only and does not constitute an offer to buy or the solicitation of an offer to sell with respect to any securities. The tender offer and consent solicitation are only being made pursuant to the terms of the Offer to Purchase and the related Letter of Transmittal. The tender offer and consent solicitation are not being made in any jurisdiction in which the making or acceptance thereof would not be in compliance with the securities, blue sky or other laws of such jurisdiction. None of the company, the dealer manager, the solicitation agent, the information agent, the tender agent or their respective affiliates is making any recommendation as to whether or not holders should tender all or any portion of their Notes in the tender offer or deliver their consent to the proposed amendments.

The company has retained Wells Fargo Securities to act as sole dealer manager and solicitation agent for the tender offer and consent solicitation and D.F. King & Co., Inc. to act as information agent and tender agent for the tender offer. Requests for documents may be directed to D.F. King & Co., Inc. at (800) 967-7574 (toll free) or (212) 269-5550 (collect) or email sixflags@dfking.com. Process to Accelerate Share Repurchase Program Initiated by Six Flags

Program Expanded by $500 Million
 Company Does Not Anticipate Pursuing REIT Structure

GRAND PRAIRIE, Texas - March 30, 2017 - Six Flags Entertainment Corporation (NYSE: SIX), the world's largest regional theme park company, today announced its board of directors approved a stock repurchase plan that allows the Company to repurchase an incremental $500 million of its common stock. The Company has repurchased nearly $1.5 billion of its common stock since beginning its share repurchase program in February 2011 and has approximately $322 million available under its current plan.

"Our consistent earnings growth provides us with an opportunity to improve our capital structure and to enhance our shareholder returns," said John Duffey, Chief Executive Officer. "Given our strong business momentum, our significant future growth prospects and our highly recurring cash flow stream, we intend to use the incremental debt proceeds from our bond offering announced today to accelerate our share repurchases, which we believe represents a tremendous value for our shareholders. At the same time, we intend to continue increasing our annual dividend at a high-single digit to low-double digit percentage rate for many years to come."

In connection with the share repurchase announcement, the company today also announced it has completed, with input from outside financial advisors, an analysis of the costs and benefits of pursuing a spin-off of its real estate assets into a REIT and determined that it would not be in the best interests of its shareholders to proceed with such a transaction at this time. The cost of the REIT transaction, the ongoing operational complexity, the limitations on future strategic flexibility and the Company's significant future growth opportunities were the primary factors in making the determination. However, the Company could revisit the merits of pursuing such a transaction should circumstances change.
